

MACKAY REGIONAL COMMUNITY LEGAL CENTRE Inc.

WORKPLACE AND CIVIL LAW SOLICITOR

Background

The Mackay Regional Community Legal Centre Inc. (MRCLC) is a charity that provides free and confidential legal advice, information, referrals and ongoing assistance to financially disadvantaged people primarily in the Mackay, Whitsunday and Isaac regions. MRCLC also provides community legal education (CLE) on various topics to organisations and members of the community.

The MRCLC assists in a wide range of civil law areas, particularly family law, residential tenancy and employment, but also consumer protection, debt, domestic violence, mental health, Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney, tree and fence disputes and motor vehicle accidents. The MRCLC does not provide advice on conveyancing, native title, criminal law and personal injuries.

The current programs operated by the MRCLC are: Queensland Statewide Tenant Advice and Referral Service (QSTARS), Elder Abuse Prevention and Support Service (EAPSS), Mental Health Review Tribunal Representation Service, Domestic and Family Violence Duty Lawyer Service, Family Advocacy and Support Service, Queensland (Workplace) Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Service (QSHADS), as well as a generalist service under the Community Legal Services Program.

The Centre currently has a full-time Manager and Principal Solicitor (1 position), 4 full-time solicitors, 1 part-time solicitor, a full-time as well as a part-time administration officer, and contributions from many volunteers at Legal Advice Evenings.

MRCLC continues to provide a legal advice evening service twice a month through the support of volunteers. The successful applicant may occasionally be required to take part in Legal Advice Evenings (LAEs) on Tuesday and/or Wednesday nights. LAEs end by approximately 8:00pm.

The Centre is regionally focused on providing a service to the residents of Mackay, Isaac and Whitsunday Regional Councils (ie communities 2 hours drive north, 1 hour south and 3 hours west of Mackay).

Vision Statement

To enable the most disadvantaged in the Mackay, Isaac and Whitsunday regions to understand the legal system, their rights and to enforce those rights by adopting a holistic approach, including incorporating advice, community legal education and to seek legal change where there are inequalities in the law.

Values Statement

To provide a reliable and accessible legal service primarily for the benefit of the most disadvantaged within the Mackay, Isaac and Whitsunday regions in a manner which respects differences and diversity of each individual.

Mission Statement

To provide a high quality, accessible and holistic legal service to the Mackay, Isaac and Whitsunday communities within a social justice framework, including by incorporating advocacy, community education and to seek legal change where there are inequalities in the law.

Position Context

Flexible working arrangements will be considered.

A full-time or part-time solicitor is sought to work predominantly under the Queensland Workplace Sexual Harassment and Discrimination program. Under this program, the MRCLC is required to provide regional legal assistance services to address workplace sexual harassment and discrimination until 30 June 2025.

This position is responsible for independently providing legal advice, undertaking casework, development and delivery of community legal education and a small amount of law reform work.

The solicitor will need to provide advice predominantly in relation to matters such as:

- General employment and workplace law, including employment contracts, Modern Awards, unpaid wages, unfair dismissal, general protections, and orders to stop bullying. You will also need to provide advice and assistance with complaints and claims in the Magistrates Court, Fair Work Commission, Queensland Industrial Relations Commission, Fair Work Ombudsman, Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia and the Federal Court of Australia
- Discrimination, sexual harassment and human rights, including advising and assisting clients with complaints and claims in the Australian Human Rights Commission, Queensland Human Rights Commission, Fair Work Commission (for orders to stop sexual harassment), Queensland Industrial Relations Commission, Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal, Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia and the Federal Court.

You will also be required to provide a small amount of advice and casework assistance in some other areas of law operated by the Centre. This could include debt, consumer disputes, estates, Enduring Powers of Attorney, family law, domestic violence, mental health law, residential tenancy, motor vehicle accidents and neighbourhood disputes. Experience or study relating to family law, mental health law or residential tenancy matters in particular will be beneficial. Consideration will be given to this position providing more legal assistance in these areas of law if requested by the applicant.

This position will include undertaking outreach throughout the Mackay, Whitsunday and Isaac Regional Council areas, as well as attending Legal Advice Evenings approximately once every 2 months. Outreach will occasionally require an overnight stay. The MRCLC has a policy relating to travel expenses. Any time you spend working at the request of the MRCLC, such as at Legal Advice Evenings or outreach, will be paid or allocated towards time in lieu.

Reports To

The Manager and Principal Solicitor, and the generalist solicitor.
